

IMPLICATION OF RESEARCH: ACTION PLAN

CHAPTER – VI

IMPLICATION OF RESEARCH ACTION PLAN

Based upon the objectives and result of the present study, the researcher has made an attempt to prepare a comprehensive plan of action as part of the implication of this research.

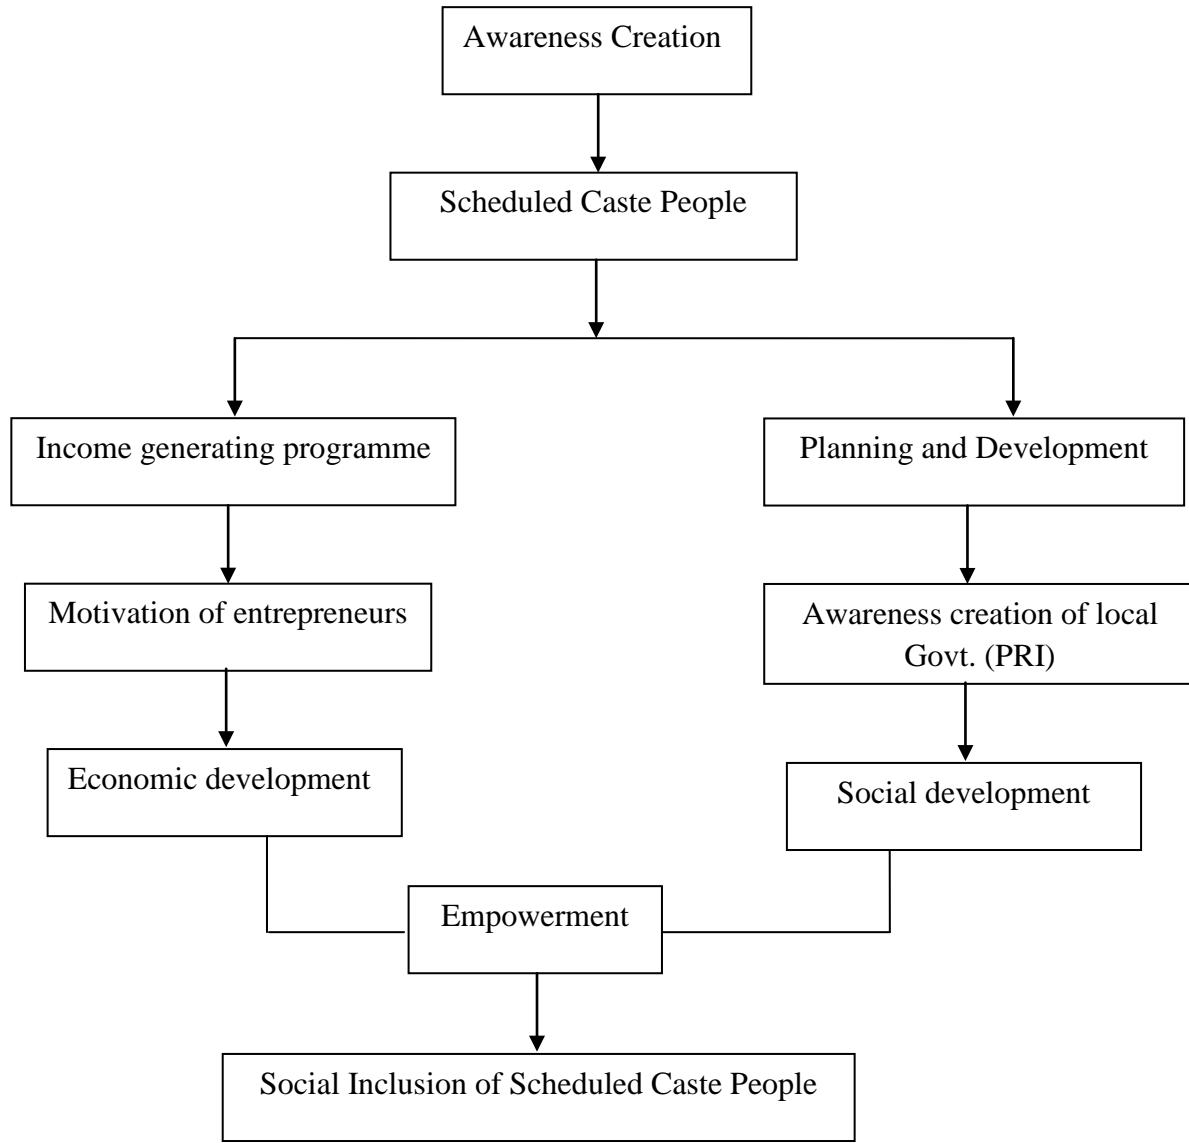

The plan of action plan incorporating the multi-dimensional approach. Accordingly the researcher as part of implication this research presents in this chapter the plan of action towards social inclusion of scheduled caste women by incorporating the dimensions such as GOs, NGOs, PRIs and FIs. These dimensions are presented in diagrammatic structure with vertical form for all the above stated dimensions ultimately leading to empowerment based social equality oriented scheduled caste women and their social inclusion in the larger society as a part of finding sustainable solution to their social exclusion.

Plan of action

GOs (Governmental Organizations)

NGOs (Non-Governmental Organizations)

PRIs (Panchayati Raj Institutions)

FIs (Financial Institutions)

Areas of further Research

- Social exclusion among the people of different people Categories of Scheduled Caste
- Social Exclusion as viewed by Non-Sc towards SC people.
- Role of SC people in Panchayat performance
- Prospects and constraints of SC women Leadership in performing welfare and developmental Activities through panchayat Raj Institutions.
- SC women leadership and their performance in Village panchayat
- Research on different categories of social exclusion and categories of Scheduled caste people.
- Perception of caste Hindus towards the role of SC men and women in rural development
- Impact of science and technology on the life of SC people
- Impact on Education on life of the Scheduled caste
- Impact of use of word Dalit/ scheduled caste on the general population.
- Social values and Scheduled caste people in the contemporary world.
- Attitudinal change of SC and Non-SC people towards each other in the present society.